Some highlights to be noted– All Staff have been working around the School’s Vision statement, and developing each students’ ‘personal best’. Success is measured in many different ways. The Junior School is running an intensive professional learning program for staff.

The Last Daughter, will be screened to the grade 10s this year, as part of the School’s Reconciliation program. This will be a community event.

We won the SATIS tennis final last week. We had a wonderful School Cross Country day last week.

Incoming – John Groom’s letter (attached below). Gina Fenney’s email re Fair Summary. (attached below).
